Rhetorical Devices are Everywhere!

Appendix C -Quiz

Name _____ Period ___ Date _____ Score ___

Part I-Matching definitions

1. ___ allusion   a. the reasons and results of an action
2. ___ anachronism   b. size, shape, color, condition
3. ___ anecdote   c. something misplaced in time
4. ___ apostrophe   d. similarities
5. ___ background   e. words that evoke strong reactions
6. ___ cause-effect   f. the meaning of a word or phrase
7. ___ comparison   g. directly addressing someone who is not present
8. ___ contrast   h. word choice
9. ___ definition   i. the endorsement of a well-qualified individual
10. ___ description   j. a short story told to make a point
11. ___ diction   k. a circumstance that could be true, but isn't
12. ___ emotionally charged words l. the history of a topic, place or idea
13. ___ expert testimonial   m. exaggeration for effect
14. ___ hyperbole   n. a reference to something famous
15. ___ hypothetical situation   o. differences

Part II-Matching examples

16. ___ imagery   a. The terra cotta warrior called me to learn more.
17. ___ Irony   b. We were gone for nineteen days!
18. ___ juxtaposition   c. Several teachers travelled to China and Taiwan this summer.
19. ___ list   d. China is a puzzle.
20. ___ metaphor   e. The shimmering fish was still in the silent pond.
21. ___ numbers and statistics   f. First, spread the paper, then ink the brush, and then paint.
22. ___ overview   g. The Forbidden Palace was just a house.
23. ___ oxymoron   h. "Communism is a hammer we use to crush the enemy."- Mao
24. ___ personification   i. Who wouldn't want to see The Great Wall of China?
25. ___ process-analysis   j. During our trip, we said xié xie!, xié xie! to show appreciation.
26. ___ quoted words   k. An ancient temple in the middle of a shopping district
27. ___ repetition   l. We visited Beijing, Xi'an, Chengdu, and Kunming, China.
28. ___ rhetorical question   m. Many teachers are students during the summer.
29. ___ symbol   n. The sheaves of wheat on the Chinese flag.
30. ___ understatement   o. We had our fill of jumbo shrimp by the end of our trip.

Second Classroom
on the Left